As the greater portion of our trade is gradually, but surely passing into the hands of the Chinese, a demand for centrally situated properties is a natural consequenc of probable changes, and the increase in value is merely the effect of this new development. But the dealing in houses has not been confined to central districts. There has been quite as much bargaining over miserable shanties in Taipingshan. as there has been in the best quarters of the Queen's Road, and the results have been in both districts almost identical. We are desirous, after having devoted a good deal of personal attention to the subject in its various phases,' of submitting to the public a statement of facts and deductions on which we base our conviction that this notorious dealing in property is a snare, and a delusion, a pernicious system of so-called commercial enterprise, boisterec up by false pretences, embodying in it many aspects correggand rotten principles. which we regret to Pave seen fostered and encouraged for miserable purposes of gair

In the ordinary course of events large and important transfers of property have been legitimately made, and for reasons stated above there can be little doubt that increased facilities for trading purposes have in several instances greatly enhanced the value of special lots. It is not, however, with legitimate and perfectly fair and hon orable trading that we now propose to deal, but with the trumped up bogus sales the reckless and discreditable gambling, which can only end in one way. A few years ago the gambling propensities of a certain class of the community gave the Colony quite an unenviable notoriety. slightest degree been conducted on any sound business principles. When a man, who could not raise a thousand dollars to save his soul, becomes the ostensible proprietor of certain property for sixty thousand dollars, by paying two or three hundred as an instalment, the rental at that price showing a return of considerably less than one per cent, per annum, the inference is obvious. It is a reckless speculation, a logus transaction, the ratification of which depends entirely on chance. Trade prospects must have been materially injured in many respects, in so much as rents, already exorbitantly high, have been generally raised in all houses speculated in. This, to many industrious tradesmen, is a great hardship, for which there is apparently no remedy. However, a day of retribution is most certainly near at hand, and we are simply performing a duty, in thus briefly exposing the real facts of what is unquestionably a grievous commercial

The dazzling prospects of the speculations in houses and land have ended in hopeless ruin to a very large number of wealthy and influential Chinese firms Chinese banks have stopped business, and trading hongs put up their shutters. Compradores reputed to be enormously wealthy, have been numbered amongst Cheedah, Schumann has undoubted claims to the missing; some have committed suicide, others contenting themselves by absconding with as much of their employers' money as they could lay their hands on. With few exceptions—so far as is, yet known—the European sections of our community have escaped with comparative immunity. There doubtless' have been losses, and also heavy gains in some quarters, but of these we are scarcely likely to get much information, as the association of respectable foreign firms in what was well known to be disgraceful and dishonest speculation is one of the worst features of the whole sad business. It will be years before the Colony can thoroughly recover from the effects of this discreditable chapter of reckless infatua-

THE Italian Opera Company gave their concluding performance of the season, last night, at the Theatre Royal, City Hall, when was produced Gjovanni Pacini's famous Opera "Saffo," for the benefit of Signora Maria Lubicci. At the first representation of "Saffo" on 15th April, we criticised the opera at full length, and were pleased to record a great success for the whole of the artistes engaged. The cast of characters last night was the same as on the previous occasion, and the principal performers fairly upheld their reputations. We were sorry to see such limited audience assemble on the occasion of Signora Lubicci's benefit; however, those present were ready to show their appreciation of the prima danna's merits. In the second act, at the conclusion of the duct sung by Saffa and Clemene the applause was unbounded, the audience refusing to be satisfied until an encore was given. Numerous boquets were thrown to Signora Lubicci during the performance, and the honors of the evening fairly belong to the beneficiaire, who appeared as Soffo, her acting and singing att-Silini was a charming Clemene, and was much | the present moment applauded for her excellent rendering of the aria, "Ah! con lui mi fu rapita," and for her share in the duet with Saffor Signori Ciocci and Vanzetti as Alcandro and Faone respectively, were all that could be desired, acting and singing like finished artistes. Signora Bertolini on the whole, rather weak. The minor charncters call for no special reference. The opera was well mounted and most correctly dressed, evident care having been given to the costumes. Signor Cattaneo conducted with his usual care and skill and added much to the general artistes who have been performing amongst fortunes are being rapidly made by so- other schemes of a like nature, are the us for the past ten weeks, with a success hitherto unprecedented in Hongkong, so far as Italian Opera is concerned, we would say that their success has been well deserved. The Company, as a whole, is a fairly strong one, and the -leading-notistes; notably-Signori-Giocci-und-Vanzetti, and Signora Silini, are far and away the best Italian Opera singers who have ever performed in Hongkong. The three great artistes, above named, can always depend on a hearty reception should they ever pay us another visit,

THE summons against Mr. Thomas Ide Bowler for obstructing the Usher, &c. of the Police Court in the execution of his duty, was dismissed this morning. There would appear to have been some mistake in the original summons as to the number of the house. We have already explained that Mr. Bowler and Chan Atai to see out to be two quite different individuals. Alt gether, things would seem to have got consider ably mixed in the whole business.

> POLICE CONSTABLE KAISM SINGH, with an eye always to the preservation of the peace of the Colony, observed a bawker and a married woman indulging in a set-to in Market Street at tenminutes to ten this morning. The intrepid virago had the hawker fast by the queue, and was pitching into him with right good will. Although belonging to a race among whom bravery is a virtue, even in a woman, the gallant Punjaubee allowed his strong admiration of the heroic female to be overborne by his high sense of duty. and lugged both off to the station. Magistrate discharged both defendants.

WE note the arrival in harbour of the Russian transport Nigni Novgorod, Captain Bauer, from Odessa for Saghalien, with a cargo of convicts and a military guard. This is the vessel for which the Russian Government requested formal permission from the Porte to pass through the Canal. It was at one time thought that the Sultan would withhold permission, on account of a soreness which existed owing to the Russian Government having previously sent a transport through the Canal without applying to the Porte, and that disagreeable complications might ensuc. However, better counsels appear to have prevailed, and the permit was graciously granted.

Will our evening contemporary ever give things their proper name? We are almost tired of exposing its persistent ignorance on the simplest matters. The latest instance of this appears in last night's issue, where we are gravely told by our highly learned contemporary that "Sir John Pope Hennessy is apparently figuring as a numismatic in India." Our contemporary ought to know, what every fairly educated school-boy does, that "numismatics" is the name of the science, "numismatic" being the adjective. What, in heaven's name, will the evening print Bro. W. H. Read, D.G.M., assisted by W. Bro- | call Sir John next? Its conductor badly needs another course of schooling. SHER DOWD, a Gun Lascar, summoned Achoy, a married woman, for assault. When the case was called at the Police Court on the 9th instant, Dowd failed to show up, and the woman, who came fully prepared to meet the charge, stated that the Lascar, who was a friend of her husband, complained on Friday last that her goose was eating up his (Dowd's) vegetables. He then abused her and threw her on the ground, but as Foreign Affairs a copy of a notice Issued by the she was not much hurt, she did not summon him, but he summoned her to prevent any chance of her taking the initiative. The Magistrate remanded the case till to-day, giving directions for the Lascar to be ordered to appear. Dowd presented himself this morning, and said he wished to withdraw the charge against the woman, which Mr. Wodehouse allowed, on the understanding that Dowd whose name, bar the "Shek," would seem to enable him to claim Parnell as a countryman, paid to cents to Achoy to compensate her for the trouble he had given her in causing her to appear on the summons. The goosewas allowed to go unmolested, and if not already assimilated by some person's digestive apparatus, that preternaturally watchful bird is aining a high standard of excellence. POLICE Constable Jewar Singh, was the victim of rank imposture on the 9th instant. 'He had a mendicant in his charge who, to all outward appearance, was blinder than the nocturnal bat, and naturally thought he could leave the man for a moment while he went to discharge a pressing duty. Returning, the Sikh discovered to his Esq. profound astonishment that the blind (?) mendicant had vanished, thereby leaving him (the Sikh) in an ugly "fix." The victimised Punjaubee had to answer for this grave dereliction of duty at the Police Court this morning, but as Inspector Hennessy represented the case in a favourable light to the Magistrate, the Constable was discharged. It is highly improbable that Jewar Singh will allow himself to be again imposed upon in so barefaced a manner, and years Mr. St. Andrew's Iroquois, 10st. 8lbs. hence when he has retired on his well earned pension to his native wilds in the Punjaub, he will, no doubt, amuse his friends over his fireside of an evening by relating how cleverly he was done in the optic by a Chinese mendicant in Hongkong.

THE Italian Opera Company finished their contract with Signor Hoslich last night, and will proceed to Manila, for a short season, on Tuesday next. Prior to their departure, they have arranged to give, on their own account, a farewell performance in Hongkong. They have therefore engaged the Theatre Royal, City Hall, for Monday next, when, by special request, they will produce Verdi's charming and ever popular opera Ze Trovatore. We trust they will be extensively patronised on the occasion of their last appearance in our midst.

7. BEACONSFIELD ARCADE. Hongkong, 11th April, 1882. HAIR DRESSING SALOON HONGKONG HOTEL

P. MOORE begs to inform the Gentlemen of Hongkong and Visitors that he C has reduced the price of Hair-Cutting to so cents. Having now in his employ three competent Assistants who are always in attendance, he guarantees to execute this class of work, in all its branches, with a perfection which cannot be excelled in any part of the World.

Hair-Cutting50 Cents. Shampooing 25 Cents,

MONTHLY CUSTOMERS TAKEN AT REDUCED RATES. RAZORS MOST CAREFULLY RE-SET.

Mr. MOORE begs to recommend his GOGO SHAMPOO WASH to the public as unrivalled by any prepara tion ever produced for promoting the growth of the hair. The basis of this compound is made of soap root; the natives of the Philippine Islands never use anything else for washing their hair; they are never found bald, and it is quite common to see the females with hair from 5 to 6 feet long. By constantly using this Shampoo Wash as directed, you will NEVER BE BALD.

The proprietor offers the Wash to the public entirely confident that by its restorative properties it will without fail arrest decaying hair. It completely eradicates scurf, dandruff, and cures all diseases of the scalp. At does not contain any poisonous drugs. By its cooling properties, it allays' the itching and fever of the RAISING. scalp, which is the great cause of people losing their hair. Mr. MOORE has succeeded in being able to put this wash up in bottles without allowing it to ferment, and he will guarantee it to keep any [331 length of time in any climate. .
